

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 11, 2010

Hmong Youth Education Services (HYES) is looking for college upperclassmen (Juniors & Seniors), or recent 4-year college/university graduates, to be Aim High Team Advisers. Applicants must be ready and willing to have an experience of a lifetime!

The HYES Aim High program is a college preparatory program designed to meet the needs of underserved Southeast Asian (high school) students in Minnesota, helping them to achieve post-secondary success after high school. The program emphasizes four main Focus Areas, Academic Tutoring, Bi-cultural Mentoring, College Preparation, and Leadership, centered within four Layers of Engagement, Self Engagement, Home Engagement, School Engagement, and Community Engagement.

Position: Aim High Team Adviser
Status: Paid Volunteer (Open until filled)
Stipend: $1,000

Commitment: (Subject to change) An estimated 6-10 hours a month for the next 6 months; spread over the weekdays and some weekends.

Responsibilities:

- Weekly contact with team members (students)
- Monthly program events and activities
- Team facilitation and mediation
- Program assessments and evaluations

Requirements:

- Program orientation and training
- Professional attitude and work ethic
- Confidence and initiative
- Desire to inspire and motivate teenagers
- Familiarity with Hmong culture and language
- Own transportation

To apply, please email the following 3 items to xiongpao@hmongyes.org, or fax them to HYES at 651-644-2449, attention Xiongpao Lee:

1. Cover Letter
2. Resume
3. References

For more information please contact Xiongpao Lee by phone at 651-644-2446 or by email at xiongpao@hmongyes.org.